In the year 1886, there was a Divine Prophet born in the state of North Carolina. His name was Noble Drew Ali. If it sounds strange to speak of a prophet born in North Carolina, that maybe how it sounded in the days of Jesus, when some thought it was strange that a prophet or anything good came out of Nazareth. As prophets of olden days came to people around the world to save nations from the wrath of Allah, a Prophet of Islam was sent also to the Moors of America, who were called Negroes. The duty of a prophet is to save nations from the wrath of Allah. As Noah and Lot were to warn the people of those days, Prophet Noble Drew Ali came to warn and redeem the Moors of America from their sinful ways.

The nationality of Prophet Noble Drew Ali was Moorish American, the same as the people he came to uplift. The Prophet uplifted his people by teaching them the Truth—the truth as to their creed, and the truth as to their customs. He taught them to be themselves, and the things necessary "to make better citizens" of men and women. He let them know that the Moorish-American are a part and partial of this said government, and they must obey the laws thereof. As a result the Moorish-Americans are good citizens, and an asset to the country also, they endeavor to uplift others who have fallen along the way of life, to redeem them so as to make them an asset to the government, rather than social detriments and wards of the government.

Prophet Noble Drew Ali taught the people termed "Negroes" in the United States are "Asiatic" and specifically that they are Moorish whose forefathers inhabited Northwest and Southwest Africa before they were enslaved in North America. Marcus Garvey was given credit, by Prophet Noble Drew Ali, of being his forerunner. Garvey's teachings about national issues were similar. Garvey stated in "Philosophy and Opinions of Marcus Garvey"; "we will have to build our own government, industry, and cultural, before the world will stop to consider us." Prophet Drew Ali passed in 1929.

Mission of the Moorish Science Temple of America

Islam; our true History to which has been removed from today's history books and the importance of knowing your true Nationality to which our people today are in a state of voluntarily ignorance. We are keeping to the true tenets of the teachings of Prophet Drew Ali.

Is Christmas Really the Born-day of Jesus?

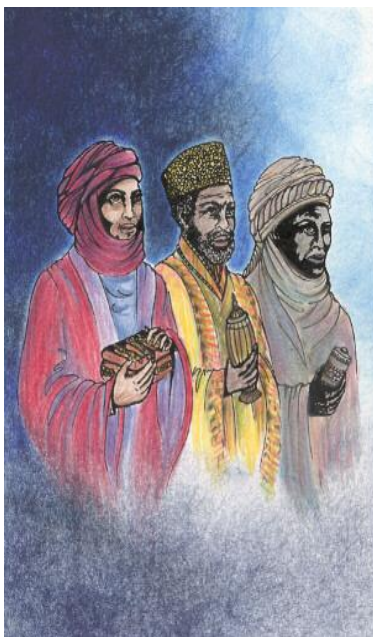

Nimrod is the founder of organized competition and the separation of state and church form of government. Known as “The Hunter”, the name Nimrod, in Hebrew means, “He rebelled”. After the great earthquake, he was the first to rebel against the laws of Allah and establish man-ruled governments. Nimrod believed in competing so strongly that he even tried to compete against the Father of the Universe.

Surely, his profit-making economic system of government reflects even unto this day. History shows he built the famed Tower of Babel in vain defiance of the Great God’s will over the will of man. Needless to say, he failed very uncommunicatively. Semiramis’ claim, after Nimrod’s burial, was that a full-grown evergreen tree sprang forth from a dead tree stump, symbolizing the new life of Nimrod. She then proclaimed, annually, upon his birth date, Nimrod’s spirit would leave gifts upon the evergreen tree. Nimrod’s birth date? December 25th. This never was the birth date of Jesus, son of Joseph by Mary; nor does any Holy Book support this idea. The birth of Jesus as December 25th actually is a reflection of “The Great Winter Solstice” because the date serves as a symbol of the new life coming forth from the darkest day.

Consider thou art a parent, the importance of thy trust; the being thou hast produced, it is thy duty to support. Prepare him early with instructions and season his mind with the maxims of truth. It is in the nature of the soul to seek truth for it naturally desires the infinite wisdom called The Great God. Therefore when the education of your child is founded with truth the freedom of your child’s psyche can unfold unto infinite wisdom. Truth is the natural nourishment for the mind, from which it gains freedom.—

“The Biography of Noble Drew Ali”

The True History of Santa Claus

The Roman Catholic Bishop, of the 5th Century, named “Bishop Nicholas of Myra” is the original Santa Claus. Bishop Nicholas was most noted for giving an enormous dowry to three daughters of a poor Greek-Roman citizen. He maintained that tradition on the eve of his birthdays by giving gifts in secrecy to some downtrodden. His birthday was on December 6th. After his passing, Greeks and Romans alike exulted Bishop Nicholas to the station of Saint. Saint is the highest ideal to the Roman Catholic Order and is bestowed upon a Catholic man or woman, of good deeds on earth, after they pass flesh. Nicknaming is also a pagan practice. To defame, shorten or reduce one’s attributes or identity is a European custom. Nicknaming eventually leads to the deforming of one’s status and subsequent misplacement. In fact, after naming themselves “White”, Europeans became world renowned for renaming, nicknaming and misnomers until the original, true and divine names are meaningless or forgotten. Saint Nicholas became St. Nick and into today’s Santa Claus of the North Pole complete with superhuman powers, 400 Slave-Elves and eight Reindeer. Saint Nicholas’s birthday was later merged into the December 25th economic folly. This is to be in accord with the tradition of “by the people and for the people”. It is also well to note the three Sheiks (wise Men) brought gifts to Baby Jehoshua (Aramaic for Justice or Jesus), not because of his Father and Mother’s financial status but because he was born through the noble African birth of a King (Matt: 1). Both parents were Adepts of the Ancient Egyptian mystery System where Jehoshua would later receive his Christhood. This was a custom of honor among great men. Today the gifts are given to anyone but the King. Albeit the foundation of Christianity had not yet begun in Rome, therefore, contrary to modern belief, although Jehoshua was a Christ, he was not a Christian because Christianity, as a religion, was still unknown. “Peace” was taught to be the way of life for Jesus. This is why he often greeted the masses with “Al- Salome Alakum” (Luke 24; 36) Today, at Christmas time, the term “Peace on Earth, Goodwill towards All Men” is mediated by the New World Order.
